VACILLATING K. U. CUR-RENT IS UNEXPLAINED

"Off again, on again"—K. U. current has been happening for the past few days as the hundreds of local patrons know. Candles are called into requisition but about the time it begins to shed its feeble rays the current goes on again. The interruption never lasts more than a minute or so and no one has been seriously inconvenienced.

The cause for these small interruptions is not known at the local office. It is very likely, however, that the wind and rain has something to do with it and local officials of the company believe the trouble is at Varilla. It is thought that a limit of a tree may be rubbing the wires at some point. Workmen have been sent to locate the trouble but had not succeeded, at noon.

SEEK LOWER RATE FIRE INSURANCE

City Officials Will Work With Property Owners for Lower Classification

Attempts to obtain lower fire rate classification for Middlesboro houses will be made by city officials when the fire engine returns from Knoxville where it is now being overhauled and repaired. Mayor J. H. Keeney is now in Knoxville in the interest of rushing the repairs.

The Middlesboro fire department has three members. In addition to the large fire engine there is available the new flusher truck which can carry a large amount of hose for fire fighting.

Commissioner Cooke stated that he would take up the matter and attempt to get lower fire insurance rates for Middlesboro property owners. The cause of such substantial additions to the fire department and equipment have been made, he believes this is possible.

DOHENY!

The magic name of the oil fields! The magic name in politics! Who is E. L. Doheny, focal point of the Senate oil investigation? What manner of man is he? What does he think?

"How I Made My Millions"

GREAT CAUTION MARCH BUYING CHARACTERISTIC

Ultimate Consumers Only What They Need

WEATHER FACTOR

Building Industry Active—Business in General May Pick Up When Warm Days Come

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Mar. 29.—Extreme caution on the part of buyers of all classes was the outstanding characteristic of trade during the last thirty days in the Eighth Federal Reserve district, according to the monthly report of the Federal Reserve bank, made public here today.

"Ultimate consumers," the report says, "are taking only what they require currently and this attitude is reflected in purchasing by retailers and wholesalers, and in turn influences raw material commitments by manufacturers. Consumption generally continues on a large scale, and both production and distribution of commodities are being well maintained, but the volume of forward buying is much smaller than during the same period in past seasons. This factor, while considered a healthy symptom and indicative of prolonged activity, is depriving manufacturers and whole salers of their usual backlog of unfilled orders and in many instances increasing costs by necessitating the carrying of larger stocks and assortments to supply the spot demand."

"Weather conditions were unfavorable, particularly in the country, where impassable roads in many sections have kept farmers from coming to town to shop, and prevented salesmen from going their rounds. Pro longation of the winter has been detrimental to the movement of apparel, and lateness of Easter also had a tendency to cause postponement of spring purchasing. The sharp decline in prices of raw cotton constituted another element making for conservatism in ordering goods based on that staple. Results during February in many lines investigated were better than during the corresponding month in 1923.

Volume Business Good
"While there is little complaint of volume of business done, many important merchants and manufacturers make the comment that the ratio between sales and profits is decreasing and in some instances is less than satisfactory. This is attributed to growing keenness in competition and generally higher costs of doing business. In manufactured goods price changes were not broad, but the downward trend in certain basic raw materials, notable cotton, cereals and coal, has had the effect of causing uncertainty in the minds of consumers who are looking for declines in the general run of finished merchandise. There is an almost complete absence of overbuying and stocks in all positions are of moderate proportions, and in the main well balanced.

"Manufacturers and distributors of building materials report a continued brisk demand for their products, and goods based on iron and steel moved in satisfactory volume. The slowing made by clothing, groceries, and other goods for ordinary consumption would have been more favorable under suspicious and satisfactory weather conditions. The backward season is supplies used by farmers, but these requirements still remain to be filled, and a period of dry, warm weather, it is believed, will result in a rapid revival of business in the rural districts.

"Prices of leading farm products of this district were lower during the period under review, with the weakness particularly emphatic in cereals and cotton. The trend of livestock, on the other hand, was slightly upward, and there were signs of 'improvement in markets for the minor crops. Prices realized in the tobacco markets were in the main satisfactory and rice continued in good demand at steady to firm prices."

Labor Condition Better
"Labor conditions developed further improvement during February and early March. The number of idle workers in the large industrial centers was reduced by increased activity at factories and railroad shops. According to the Employment service of the U. S. Department of Labor the trend of employment showed unmistakable indications of rapid absorption of all idle skilled and common labor as soon as weather condition permit resumption of outdoor activities. Skilled labor is in better demand. Common labor is still plentiful. Lead and zinc mining and railroad shops registered increased employment over January. Shoes factories, meat packing and other major industries are employing normal forces for this season, but there is a surplus of male and female office help. Building workers were kept active at the recent high scales, and further advances were asked by certain trades in St. Louis. Unemployment still prevails among miners in the coal fields.

"The fuel situation developed no change worth of note and was described on all sides as dull and contracting from the viewpoint of producer and distributor."

VENGEANCE PAGAN GODS WREAKED ON TEMPLE VIOLATORS

By Associated Press.

HONOLULU, Mar. 29.—The gods of ancient Hawaii again wreaked their vengeance upon the whites who made merry upon the site of a former heiau, or old-time temple of worship, according to Hawaiian superstition, when the famous clubhouse of the Order of Elks on the beach at Waikiki was damaged by fire to the extent of $65,000.

This fire, caused by defective wiring, was the last of a series of untoward events, including murder, which occurred at the site of the heiau, which nestles at the foot of Diamond Head. According to Hawaiian medicine men, only evil will come to those who desecrate the site of an ancient heiau.

The clubhouse was built many years ago by the late James H. Castle, a descendant of the missionaries who came from New England to the islands in 1820, as a residence for his family. During the occupancy of the Castle family two Japanese were murdered in the grounds and attention was called at that time to the tradition of the heiau.

BAPTISTS PLAN GREAT REVIVAL

Louisville Man Will Conduct Evangelistic Service, Beginning Monday

Middlesboro is now on the eve of a great revival campaign, a series of religious meetings that will doubtless touch hundreds of hearts and win many souls to Christ. The Rev. E. C. Stevens, pastor of a large Louisville church, will begin the services at the First Baptist church Monday evening. E. L. Wolslagle, evangelistic singer, will conduct the song services.

Preparations for the campaign in the way of preliminary meetings have been made. The Rev. Sam P. Martin, pastor of the church, has during the past few weeks preached a series of sermons to prepare his large congregation for the services. Interest in the coming services has been worked up to the highest point and there is little doubt that the services will be well attended from the very first meeting.

Unusual care was used in selecting a minister and a musician for the services. In the Rev. Wolslagle they have found a forceful speaker, a man with age-old message of the Scriptures told in an original and interesting manner. Throughout his series of sermons the three-fold message of Christ, the cross and the crown, will appear in an appealing and convincing manner.

In modern revivals the singer plays a part almost as important as that of the preacher. Hundreds of persons are drawn to the meetings by the vocal music and become regular attendants, perhaps members of the church, as a result of the first visit. Mr. Wolslagle needs no introduction to Middlesboro people. He is known here to be an excellent singer and song leader and a man whose ability renders him a capable assistant for such revivalist.

The Rev. Stevens will preach at all the services, morning and evening, and Mr. Wolslagle will conduct the song services.

The services will begin at 10 o'clock each morning and at 7:30 each evening. The meetings have been planned for thirteen days, beginning Monday evening, March 31 and lasting to Sunday, April 13. The following subjects are announced for the different dates:

Monday, March 31—P. M. A New Testament Revival.
Tuesday, April 1—A. M. How to Get Your Prayer Answered. P. M.—Intercessory Prayer.
Wednesday, April 2—A. M. The Musts of Discipleship. P. M.—Heaven.
Thursday, April 3—A. M. The Stewardship of the Gospel. P. M.—Hell.
Friday, April 4—A. M. A Passion For Souls. P. M.—Sin Enough to Damn.
Saturday, April 5—A. M. The Shepherd Heart. P. M.—Who Is Your Father?
Sunday, April 6—A. M. The Stewardship of Life. Afternoon—Stirring The Nest. P. M.—Substitution.
Monday, April 7—A. M. Sufficient Grace. P. M.—Profit or Loss.
Tuesday, April 8—A. M. God's Program for His People. P. M.—Repentance.
Wednesday, April 9—A. M. The Royal Visitor. P. M.—Refugees.
Thursday, April 10—A. M. Life's Sufficient Ballast. P. M.—The Cross of Christ.
Friday, April 11—A. M. Christ-Likeness. P. M.—The Four Judgments.

Committee Consider Confidential Files In Session

CIMINO TESTIFIES

Admits Hearing Conversation Relative to Whiskey Deal—Details Were Not Given In Full

Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—Disposition to apply brakes to its public disclosures was apparent when the Daugherty Senate committee resumed inquiry today into Daugherty's official acts. Instead of examining confidential files in the department of justice in public as originally planned, the committee decided to consider them in executive session instead. The committee but Nicholas Cimino of New York, on the stand. He testified yesterday regarding Daugherty's relations with Howard Mannington and others. Cimino said he sought to get some of his friends appointed prohibition agents through Daugherty. Asked if he remembered the whiskey deal where Elias H. Mortimer got $100,000, the witness replied: "I overheard a conversation where one of the fellows said Mortimer got $100,000 from a party in Pittsburgh, a man named Grant." The witness went on. He was mentioned as having been double crossed by Mortimer in the $100,000 deal. Cimino also told of having heard of a $50,000 deal in paroles but could give no details.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Mar. 29.—Frank A. Vanderlip, retired banker, asked whether he thought any other cabinet members should go, said in a statement published today: "That will develop later; if I said 'yes' you would want to know names and if I told you that, it would shock you."

STRIKE OF 40,000 MINERS IN 4 STATES IMMINENT

By Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mar. 29.—A strike of 40,000 coal miners in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, was considered imminent by officials of the Southwest Interstate Operators' Association, when a three day conference between representatives of the operators and miners to consider a new wage scale opened here.

Operators have agreed a lower wage scale must be adopted if the mines continue to operate, but they consider it improbable that the miners will agree to a reduction. The present wage scale expires April 1.

PRICE OF EGGS OFF WAGONS NOW 22 CENTS

The price of eggs has taken another tumble. They are selling at twenty-five cents per dozen retail at some places, while some have been sold from country wagons for twenty-two cents. A large part of local egg supply comes from the farms of the surrounding country. Recent warm weather has increased the production of eggs and caused a corresponding decrease in price.

ROADWAYS
One road leads to London
One road leads to Wales
My road leads me seawards
To the white dripping sails.

One road leads to the river,
As it goes slithering slow;
My road leads to the shipping,
Where the bronze sailors go.

Leads me, pines me, calls me
To salt green tossing sea;
A road without earth's road dust
Is the right road for me.

A wet road heaving, shifting,
And with the seagulls' cries,
A mad salt sea wind blowing
The salt spray in my eyes.

My road calls me, lures me
West, east, south and north;
Most roads lead men homeward
My road leads me forth.

To add more miles to the tally
Of gray miles left behind
In quest of that one beauty,
God put me here to find.

GLEE CLUBS GIVE PROGRAM FRIDAY

Under Direction Miss Seay—Work in Track and Baseball Progresses

The annual spring program of the High School Glee Clubs and the High School Orchestra will be given next Friday evening at the Auditorium. These organizations have been working some time on this program under the direction of Miss Seay, the musical director. The program will consist of numbers given by the Orchestra and Girls Glee Club and the Boys Glee Club.

New Books for Library
Over one hundred new books were added to the High School library this week. These books are mostly biographies and historical and scientific works. The books were paid for with money raised by the student body.

Senior Play April 18
Work on the Senior play "Come Out of the Kitchen" is progressing rapidly under the direction of Miss Skeen and Miss Reeves. The first two acts have already been learned and the third act will be mastered next week. The play will be given on the evening of April 18.

Clear-Baseball Field
The baseball team spent part of this week in putting the field in good condition. Low places in the field are being filled and dead grass is being raked off the field. The track team will aid in this work and is planning to build a dirt track next week. There are a great many boys out for baseball and track and prospects for two winning teams look very good.

Freshman Chapel Program
The program in chapel Friday morning was given by the Freshmen of Miss Rodgers home room. A very entertaining program was given by these students. The hit of the program was an imitation moving picture show. The rest of the program consisted of a style show, a boys' trio, a violin duet, given by Graham Short and Jack Easton, and a piano solo, given by Elizabeth Brosheer.

Slender Line
A long panel from the collar line to the hem in the back of this season's frock is one way of preserving the long, slender line.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Lady Says She Suffered from a Burning Sensation, Headache, Dizziness, Until She Took Black-Draught.

Signal, Miss.—"For a year or longer I had indigestion, and had it bad," says Mrs. E. S. Holman, of this place. "Everything I ate hurt me. I would have burning in my stomach and smothering spells, and after meals feel right dizzy. My head would begin to ache, and I would want to lie down, but I couldn't for I would mumble. Unless one has had such trouble, they don't know what it is. I was talking to a neighbor one day and told her how I had been affected. She told me it was indigestion and to try Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few large doses and then a pinch after meals, and for fully four months now I haven't had indigestion. I eat whatever I please and then I please, but keep up the Black-Draught—just an occasional dose."

When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, try the suggestion above. Thousands of people have found that Black-Draught promotes relief in indigestion by stimulating the liver and stomach to perform their normal functions. That's on Thorndike's, the only genuine. Sold everywhere. NC-162.

The Theme for the Morning Sermon Will Be

"Salvation"

In what sense is the word used in Scripture? Who is the author of it? Who are the beneficiaries? Suppose you were told that it would never be your possession? What is your attitude toward it now?

7:30 O'clock

At the Evening Service the Theme Will Be

"The Deferring"

Who are they who postpone accepting God's offer? What is their substitute? How long can one safely postpone obeying God? Do you think you have ever heard God call to repentance, faith and salvation?
